ORDER REQUIRING ALL DEFENDANTS IN P&H ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS TO ANSWER OR FACE POTENTIAL DEFAULT

Certain of the adversary proceedings (those set forth on Exhibit 1, the “Active P&H Cases”) came before this Court for hearing on December 17, 2018. Appearing at the hearing were: C. Ellis Brazeal III (Special Counsel for Trustee); Brad Hightower (Special Counsel for the Trustee); Stephen B. Porterfield and Thomas B. Humphries (attorneys for various P&H Defendants); Phillip A. Sellers, II (attorney for various P&H Defendants); Michael A. Fritz, Sr. (attorney for John R. Harper, III, MD, PC); and appearing via telephone, Gregory W. Hauswirth (attorney for various P&H Defendants) and Lauren Warner (attorney for various P&H Defendants).

Counsel for the parties in the Active P&H Cases requested the Court to order the parties in all of the P&H cases to file answers or face potential default. Per its order dated September 12, 2018, this Court had ordered that no Defendant in the Pre-petition processing and handling adversary proceedings (identified on Exhibit A to the September 12, 2018 Order and attached to this Order) (the “P&H Defendants”) was required to file an answer or other responsive pleading unless and until otherwise ordered by the Court. Based upon arguments of counsel, this Court hereby ORDERS and REQUIRES that the any P&H Defendant(s) that has not filed an answer in an Adversary Proceeding identified on Exhibit A are now REQUIRED to file an answer or other responsive pleading on or before JANUARY 25, 2019. Any P&H Defendant that fails to timely file an answer, may be subject to a default judgment.

Done and ordered this 3rd day of January, 2019.
